

LAST WILLS AND TESTAMENTS

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1961, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and it coming to the time when we shall leave JEROME HIGH SCHOOL forever, DO HEREBY LEAVE, DEVISE, and CONVEY unto the respective devisees, particularly as follows:

TWILA ADAMS leaves to her daughter all the junk in the bottom of my locker.

DENNIS ANDRUS to Beverly Andrus - 1-1954 Ford--and the unpaid gas bills to accompany it, and the whistle, too.

JENNIE ARMENTA wills to Roberta Carroll: My Government desk.

MIKE L. ALLEN to the selected few: My beanshooter, yo-yo, pet frog, and my collection of earwax and navel lint collected over the years from various places.

BARBRA JEAN BAGLEY to Melvean Wambolt: My long black hair.

JUNE BAGLEY to Pracilla Pratt: My ability to get along with boys.

ARTIS ANE BAKER to Beverly Justice: My most beloved Government seat.

KATHY BARTHOLOMEW to anyone worthy: My place in the Jug, Fife and Bottle Band and my public locker mirror.

TAMARA BINGHAM to Edna Turpin: Two mangled locks and everything left in my locker, including all the gum rappers.

JOYCE W. BODENHOFER: To my sis, Jerome High and hope she uses it better than I.

CAROL ANN BOGUSLAWSKI to the Janitor Bob Atwood's cracker and cheese factory.

MARILYN BOLICH to Mary Pat Mahan, Pat Morgan, and Lois Werner: Wishes for a lot of fun, friends, and good luck at GIRLS' STATE.

SHIRLEY BOND to her sister, Carol: My job in the junior high office.

ALTA CHESS to Carol Stuhlberg: Locker 84 with all appurtenances: Blue sprayed mirror, box with 6 combs, 12 pens, no pencils, notes, 2 tubs with no lipstick, and all other junk--to use it better than I.

LaRUE BRANCH to Carol Mitchell: My ability to write 500 word themes for Mr. Walker, knowing she will have every possible advantage to make use of it.

JERRY BRENMANN to John Elorietta my Government book and teacher.

DICK BURKS to Gordon Halverson: My cheat sheets for Government and Comp. (He will need them!)

KAY BYRAM to Midget Martin and Shirley Koll: My old locker and lock No. 83--and all the fun this year--you both know what I mean.

PAUL EDSON COLLIS to Diana Pratt: My ability to get low grades in Math. and all the gray hair dye I can find at home.

KAY CRANER to some future Latin student: The ability to be called on for the only sentence you have translated.

CAMILLE COX to Andy Johanson: My very clean locker and my sunshine seat in Government class.

GAIL DARLING: To Royce and Larry: My neat figure in hopes that they can use it better than I did.

ILENE DAVIS to Sherri Sloat: All the mumbling I do in study hall.

SHARON MARIE DIRK to Erma Manson: My unlucky seat in Government.

GARY DUNCAN to Bob Atwood: My ability to get along with the principal.

RONALD DEAN FAGER to Huey Hall: The "family plot"!

SONDRA RAE FLEMING to everybody left: Everything that we got.

BRIAN FLOWERS to whoever needs it: Another bottle of man tan.

BEA FYKE: To whoever needs it: My respect for Mr. Emerson.

CLARK GREGORY to the Junior Class: My head--after I graduate it will be big enough to go around.

EDDIE GREGG to Dennis Hutchison the ability to be a better ballplayer than I was.

DONNETTA HALVERSON to my "smart little brother"--all my books, with the hope that no one will read the shorthand written in them to him.

CAROL ANN HARLEY to Merle Adams: My seat in Government and all my test papers.
 CAROLYN JO HARLEY to Marvin Herlos (?): My back seat in Government and all my marks.

SAMMY HAWKINS to any junior: My seat in government class.

HILARY HAYS to anyone: My desk in Government.

JANE HOSMAN to Phil Morley: Two heating pads, one for each foot, so that he'll no longer have cold feet.

TONY HUMBACH to any Junior: Ability to stay away from girls.

DENNIS JACKSON to Richard Miller: Locker 36 and contents--any teacher still around.

EILEEN JENKINS to Gary and Mary Pat: The box of Annual material, empty aspirin bottles and my old dummy, that they may make the '62 TIGER really great.

BONNIE JOHANSON to Mary Pat Mahan: All my good times, and luck at GIRLS' STATE.

MORRIS BRUCE KAYS to Larry McAuley: My old locker, No. 57, and my favorite teacher.

ALFRED KING to Kurt Thompson my inability to get along with girls.

TED L. KINNAMAN to anyone anything I have of value.

BENNY LAUGHLIN wills to penny pinchers some pinched pennies.

VERNON KOHNTOPP to Everyone J. H. S. and what is left after I leave.

SALLY LEE to Chris Hills: My shorthand pen, that she can make it go faster than I have.

BONNIE JEAN LOWE to Claudia Shaw: All the leftover pretzels, potato chips, candy, nuts, apple cores, shoestrings, pop, and mints from our trip to Rexburg.

GARY LOWMAN to Troy Thompson: My ability to miss the basket ball bus to Nampa.

LOIS LEE LUCKMAN to Midge Martin: Those irregular hours and Monday tests.

JAMES MAGARRELL to the most capable girl a certain spot in my car, when I get it, and a pile of dates this summer.

MELVIN MAGNELLI to Gordon Halverson: My honorary seat on the school board.

LE ROY MAY to Alex Allen: My government tests (for a fee of course) and J.H.S.

LINDA MARIE McMILLAN to Jill Dunigan: My favorite parking place in hopes that it isn't on Mr. Nejd's private property.

DONNA MILLER to Evelyn Miller my haunted locker-door handle and all the little ghosts and goblins that go with it.

WAYNE MILLER to Dennis Hutchinson: My church key.

LARRY MILLIGAN to Alex Allen and Mark Fritzler: My goat-hair robe and book on Zen-Budda.

RACHEL MOFFITT to Dale Lowe: My ability to get along with his sister, he needs it.

RICHARD MOORE to Dennis Moore: My parking stop in front of the "beautiful" J. H. S.

SHARON MOSELEY to Sonja Kuykenoall: My grades in world history.

LINDA OTTO to Roger Moore: My grades, term papers and all my old tests.

WLELER M. O'HARROW to Skip Hall a little black book and a pink telephone.

JAMES WALLACE PARKINSON to Marilyn Phillips a certain spot in my car, and my bowling average.

CURT PERKINS to Bob Doughty all of my old tests and cheat sheets in Law and Government.

RICHARD RICE to Mike Davis: My parking space in front of the school and my skill in ruining and changing tires.

JON SKIVER RABE to Lyle Sidwell a Lit. book, a pencil and a good luck wish in study hall.

ROBIN LOUISE ROBISON to Skip Hall: My two lockers with no partner.

LESLIE THOMAS ROBERSON to Dennis Brotherton: My ability to get along with Mr. Walker, cause he may need it.

LEN RIDDLE to Merle Adams: My ability to flunk geometry.

CYNTHIA RUSSELL to Judy Halverson the "family plot."

LAST WILL and TESTAMENTS--Page 3

JIM SCARROW to Tom Capps: My government book and locker full of trash.

SHIRLEY SHOWERS to Carolyn McDonald: My ability to ski Kinderhorne.

LARRY SIDWELL to Jim Featherston and Glen Somerset: Safeway's back room produce cooler to use as they see fit.

WILMA SILVER to Judy Heitzman my shorthand notes, my minutes of the meetings; and to Mary Pat Mahan my ability to be a part of the country's best branch of the service--The Naval Academy at Annapolis.

CAROLYN SILVERS to Edna Silvers: My old lit. and govt. notebooks as she will need them.

VELMA SLATTER to SoAnn Smith: My ability to work all night and try to stay awake in school.

TERRY SMAIL to Mark Tilley: My file of government tests so that if Mr. Shaud has any trouble making out next year's tests, Mark can help him.

JACK SPELLERBERG to the Sophomore Class: My old government tests.

BEVERLY STOEHR to Sonja Kuydendall: My neat locker and my ability to flirt.

HAL D. STOLTZ to whoever wants it: The worn-out cover of my government book.

CHARLES STUHLBERG to Sharon and Karen Reynolds my matched set of dented fenders?

MAXINE THOMASON to Sylvia Hendrickson: one 1960 blue Ford Falcon stationwagon for her to be errand girl at a certain drug store.

NORMA JEAN TICKNER to Shirley Koll: My future plans.

VIRGINIA THRALL to Denise Harris: a mirror, a kleenex box, and my good grades.

KATHY TITUS to John Elorrieta: my government exams and my talent to put things off till the last minute.

HELEN CAROLL TURBEVILLE to Melvean Wambolt: My ability to be quiet and to get along with people.

LINDA ULRICH to Norm Ulrich: My ability to pass government tests.

JACK WAGEMAN to Mr. Shaud: All my brains for the next year seniors and my good looks to senior girls.

SUE WATSON to Mrs. Brown: My seat in 3rd period for some deserving Sophomore.

DAVID WILLIAMS to anyone who is crazy enough to take it: My job as student body manager and my government book.

WALLY WILLIAMS to Bob Atwood: My NO Doze pills for government class, I hope he uses them more than I did.

RON WOOLLEY to Jerry Keck: Five pounds of admit slips to use during the coming year.

JUDY GIBSON to Vicky Camozzi: My crazy laugh, which bursts out at the wrong times, to Vic, who needs a good laugh.

LUCILLE FRAZIER to nobody: Nothing (I'm stingy).

SIGNED, SEAL, PUBLISHED AND DECLARED, as and for their last wills and testaments by the respective members of the 1961 graduating class of JEROME SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, above-named testators, in the presence of LARRY SIDWELL, class president, and attested to by the class secretary, DIANE DIXON, on this 26th day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one (1961).

ATTEST:

Diane Dixon

SECRETARY

Larry Sidwell
CLASS PRESIDENT