The Back Story to the photo.

Linda McMillan and I had been best friends since before 1st Grade when she and her family moved in across the alley from us. We were inseparable!

Fast forward 45 years to about 2006.

I heard Linda had been diagnosed with late stage cancer and was under treatment at Huntsman Cancer Center in Salt Lake City. I tracked her down and invited her to come live with us. Even though she was really sick, we had a lot of fun - so many old times and memories to talk about. Linda had stayed in Magic Valley and stayed in touch with so many of our classmates. She knew who married who, how many children they had and where they lived...she was absolutely amazing! We had so many years to catch up on. Some days it was just like we were back in grade school! I really missed her when she passed...we still had so much to talk about...

The photo was taken when I went to pick her up to take her home to live with us.
