ABOUTOBITUARIESPLAN AHEADPROD

the family returned again and again over the years. She also enjoyed taking weekend afternoon drives with her family.

Tamara delighted in entertaining her grandchildren, and often hosted her nieces and nephews during the summer, keeping them busy with crafts, coloring, playdough, and baking cookies. She loved writing letters and sending cards to family and friends, and continued doing so until she could no longer hold a pen. She loved reading and studying the scriptures, attended church every Sunday, and served faithfully in many church callings throughout her life. Above all, she taught her children to have love at home, and to always forgive and love one another.

She is survived by her children: Roger Curtis (Arlene) Jepson, Karrie Ann (Stan) Anderson, Brian Allen Jepson, Michael James Jepson, and Stephanie Lynn (Ryan) Daniel; her brothers, Newell (Jackie) Bingham and Mark (Sue) Bingham; and sisters-in-law Christine Hunter and Viola Jepson.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jim; her parents, Newell and Twila Bingham; and her sister, Brenda Stewart.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, July 9, 2026, at 11:00 AM at the Blackfoot South Stake Center, 900 Riverton Road, Blackfoot, Idaho. A viewing for family and friends will begin at 9:45 AM, prior to the service. The funeral procession will begin immediately following the service.

Tamara will be laid to rest beside her husband, James C. Jepson, at Grove City Cemetery in Blackfoot, Idaho, located at 1 Willow Drive.
